Graduates Attributes: Designing and Assessment

Dr. Mohammed AlKhatiri

Teaching & Learning in Higher Education, PhD
Dean, Deanship of Academic Development
Imam Abdulrahman Bin Faisal University

“ I believe it is not about assessment, it is not about Graduate' Attributes, it is not about teaching strategies, but it is all about students' learning experience which is above all and more.

• I think we should focus more on the functional part or the education part more than the technical part.
